REALLY GOOD COOKIES® PARTNERS WITH JETSCAPE AS THEIR PREMIERE GIFT SERVICES AND DESSERT CATERING COMPANY

Really Good Cookies®, a gourmet gift and dessert company and Jetscape, a fixed based operator at the Fort Lauderdale International Airport have teamed up combining their forces and talents in servicing the exclusive world of private jet aviation.

Jetscape and Really Good Cookies® grace the cover of the June 13th issue of Charter Hub Magazine. “The cohesive partnership between Jetscape and Really Good Cookies® is undoubtedly a natural fit as both companies strive to deliver the very best every day in our related industries” says Christine Najac owner of Really Good Cookies®. In the vast world of super-speed technology Jetscape and Really Good Cookies® have the cutting edge advantage of personal touch. The management staff at Jetscape knows the aircraft owners personally or their pilots that arrive at their facility. Jetscape’s management greets almost every aircraft that comes through their location and strives to stay in touch with their customers to continue to give the personalized service they have built their company on. Really Good Cookies® has built their company on a similar foundation of outstanding customer service and exceeding expectations; coupled with their all encompassing mantra of “why do when you can over-do!” has set the high standards for this company.

Jetscape is a fixed based operation at the Fort Lauderdale Airport led by an inspired and experienced team of aviation professionals. Jetscape is a brilliant addition to the Florida aviation market and a bonus to aircraft flying clients jetting to the Caribbean beaches and resorts.
